A RURAL REFLECTION

'Windows connect us to the outside and can act as a poetic metaphor for perspective, vision and reflection.'

Artist and designer Caroline Cleave will be giving a talk about her work and latest exhibition at Whitewater Contemporary Gallery which pays homage to Samuel Palmer, a key figure in British Romanticism, and later John Minton, who both produced visionary pastoral paintings and etchings.

Caroline's talk will also link into the project she is organising with Katie Chancellor to design a celebratory community Christmas card for St Kew Church based on its rural setting and unique medieval stained glass windows.

There will be a drop-in workshop at St Kew Church on Saturday, 3rd October from 10:30am -12.30pm led by Caroline Cleave. This will be your chance to roll up your sleeves and create the card together! All ages are welcome.
